

ADDICTION MEDICINE

our patient-centered mental health team

works with adults who wish to treat an opioid use disorder with medication, whether it is pain medicine or heroin, with medication and comprehensive recovery supports. As part of Gifford's Behavioral Health Team, the Addiction Medicine Program collaborates with community partners to assure that patients with addiction and their families are treated with dignity and the highest quality medical and behavioral health care.

RANDOLPH & BERLIN

DR. CHRISTOPHER LUKONIS

EDUCATION

MD, University of Connecticut Health Center, Farmington, CT

BS, Georgetown University, Washington, DC

RESIDENCY

Harvard Longwood Psychiatry Residency Training Program, Boston, MA

Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, Boston, MA

BOARD CERTIFIED

American Board of Addiction Medicine (ABAM), American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, and the American Society of Addiction Medicine

CLINICAL INTERESTS

Working with patients with opioid disorders, combating addiction stigma

JENNIFER PELLETIER, LADC

EDUCATION

MA, Johnson State College, Johnson, VT

BA, Johnson State College, Johnson, VT

CLINICAL INTERESTS

Drug and alcohol addiction

SERVICES OFFERED:

- Ongoing Suboxone treatment for patients with complex needs
- Suboxone provider support, education and consultation
- Suboxone induction and stabilization, with potential referral back to Gifford or other providers
- Case consultation around the interface between pain and opioid use disorders
- Group and/or individual therapy to assist patients in rebuilding lives damaged by an opioid use disorder

To speak with a provider or schedule an appointment call: 728-7744